FOREWORD

The South Suburban Murray League is to put its reputation and number two seeding to the W.A.N.F.L. on the line in a game against the Amateur Football Association.

The game will be played as a preliminary match to the National Football League fixture between Hawthorn and West Perth at Subiaco Oval on Monday, June 7th. There will be a general bye in the S.S.M.F.L. that weekend.

The game is being played in lieu of the annual S.S.M.F.L. — W.A.F.A. game which is traditionally played on the Sunday of the Foundation Day long weekend.

That game was scrapped this year because W.A.F.A. wanted to change the date after the S.S.M.F.L. fixtures had already been drawn up.

The game against the Amateurs will be a test of the League's playing strength and a test of players' sympathies.

There is no doubt the A.F.A. is a worthy opponent. If fact, it is probably a stronger competition than the W.A.F.A. Most clubs possess players with league experience and their junior and colts competitions have been the breeding grounds of the majority of their own and W.A.N.F.L. players.

And the absence of match payments vouches for the individual's honest desire to play football. That desire is extended to representative games because of the lure of selection in the State amateur team and a trip to the nationals amateur championships each year.

Can the same be said of the S.S.M.F.L.?

There is no doubting the strength of our competition. If all players make themselves available for this game, the League's reputation should be enhanced.

But past experience has shown that the allegiance of a lot of players to the League ends at club level. And to pit a depleted team against the Amateurs could have serious consequences.

Defeat would seriously damage the League's standing as a football entity.

Having committed themselves to the fixture the League must now ensure they field the best possible team — which won't be easy because of the late notice of the game. Many players have no doubt arranged their long weekends

Alternatives open to the league are financial inducements or the suspension of players from club games if they're not prepared to participate.

There is undoubted value in inter-association games, as long as the League goes into them well prepared.

TODAY'S GAMES:

After last week's loss Mandurah have the opportunity to stabilise their position when they meet Thornlie at the MANDURAH OVAL. Neither of these sides can be happy with their form to date although the Seasideers are a formidable combination at home. Thornlie are in dire straits and the trip to Mandurah and the small ground are not likely to help their cause today. Mandurah to win.

If form is any criteria, Kalamunda will have to wait at least another week before registering their first win. They play Gosnells today at HARTFIELD PARK and the visitors look capable of inflicting a big defeat on the Kougars.

At JOHN DUNNE OVAL, Kelmscott have the opportunity to stave off Kwinana's bid for a place in the top four. Neither side has been a model of consistency but Kelmscott have attained a higher level of competency and should hold onto fourth place.

MILLS PARK will be the venue for one of the toughest games of the day between Kenwick and Canning. The Tigers lost ground last Sunday after a fortnight of promise, whereas Kenwick consolidated with a massive win and they are a more fluent combination at the moment.

Maddington don't relish the confined area of GWYNNE PARK but it is doubtful that Armadale have the required ability to capitalise on their home-ground advantage.

TALK OF BULL

Strong performance by every player in both the league and seconds sides enabled the Bulls to run all over Thornlie last weekend.

The relatively young seconds side (with the exception of 35 year old veteran Mick O'Halloran) played fast, systematic and intelligent football to win by a comfortable margin. Besides having talent this side is well balanced with strong bullocking players, such as Dave and Gus Reynolds, providing necessary support and protection for the smaller players.

Best players were Mark Platell (played the centre as it should be played), Mick O'Halloran (ran on all day despite his age) Mack Schmook (good return to form) Peter Johnston (fast creative play) and Brent Anderson and Davey Hayden (both of whom, providing they persevere, will break into the league side before too long).

The league side played brilliantly and won handsomely practically in every position on the ground. Ian Saunders, Alan Riley and Ted Weir were constructive midfield, Jim Cominelli and Gay Sherrington stood out in defense, while Dennis Cometti, Colin Walker and Lindsay Reynolds controlled the aerial duels all day. Russell Jarvis at full forward was prepared to lead and with players downfield looking for him the method of attack was very efficient. Jim Butler played well in the centre but really burned when shifted out on to a flank in the third quarter.

It was good to see Wayne 'Horse' Condon make his playing debut, last week and he did well enough to suggest that he could be an asset to the club.

Sunday 6th June is a "Happy Sunday Morning" at the clubrooms, with the Prankstars, stripper and Clem Croft — you'll be sorry if you miss this one so see Gary Maskiell or any of his sub-committee members.

Saturday 29th May is the wedding day of committeeman Dave Walker to Miss Lorraine Jarvis. The club wishes them all the best for the future. Lorraine is an entrant in the 1976 Miss Crowning glory Quest.

Armada this week, don't take them lightly.

CRASHED

THE HAWKS

The mighty Hawks crushing defeat over Mandurah last Sunday in both the league and reserves matches was another extremely creditable performance. Well done fellas — keep up the good work.

Outstanding players in the league were Errol Croft, who played tirelessly on a half back flank and Rick Martin who put in a good performance on the forward pocket. D. Chapman, Peter Dougan, Ray Minson and Kevin Smith also made strong contributions.

Best players in the reserves side were Graham Campbell, Brian Lester and Dick Morphet. According to Peter Dougan selection of the league side is becoming increasingly difficult with between thirty and forty players urging for league contention. With the expected early return of Norm Barratt and Len Marsh who have been on the injured list the selectors job will be even more difficult.

Members and supporters of the club enjoyed the company of a good many Mandurah players and supporters who joined us for a pleasant drinks after the game.

SOCIAL:

Our $500 Bonanza Raffle will be drawn on June 5th at Gosnells Oval. Tickets are still available for $10 per double, which will provide Barbeque packs, refreshments and of course a chance to win $500 cash. Your support is requested to make this function an outstanding success, tickets may be obtained from Frank Sochacki, Kevin Pollock or any of the Committeemen.

KALAMUNDA

Kalamunda Football Club Ball Friday June 4th, this is the night we let our hair down. Have you a party yet, if not why not?

Last week against Kwinana was disappointing both on the field and the after effect of having two players in Hospital, Kim Bingham and Ian Blackburn, all the club wish you both a speedy recovery.

Five players were nominated by our selection committee to be proposed to the selectors as worthy of consideration for the combined side this year. Phil Hayes, Ian Price, Ken Smith, Jeff Brown and Mick Jones. To these players we trust some of you will be selected. To all other people we ask dedication for winning matches.

Gosnells are a top side — Set your goal Kalamunda to knock them off today, and start the ball rolling for better things and attitudes. After game social at the Wattlegrove Hall, we look forward to Gosnells joining us.

TANGLEFOOT

TIGER TALES

Kelmscott proved too good for the Tigers in last week's encounter and that spells bad news — two wins out of six cannot be termed a successful start to the season when one considers the talent available to our league side.

Inconsistency and "back chatting" the umpire are the two greatest reasons why our form to date does not read better. Inconsistent play is mainly up to each player's personal application, but disputing umpiring decisions is pointless and unnecessary. What ever your opinion of their performance, they are the "best" the league has so buck up and belt up on the field. Let's start today by forgetting about the umpire and concentrating on Kenwick and four premierships points for the Tigers.

Interesting to note that Craig Nock, the best wingman this club has ever seen, is currently leading in all fairest and best awards conducted with the S.S.M.N.F.L. Let's hope that Craig's good form continues throughout the season, and he takes off top honours. It couldn't happen to a nicer young chap.

Gary Fenner is also up among the top goalkeepers after missing the first few games while John Vlahov gets a mention amongst the leaders in the Sports Review best player award.

Friday night is our "Chicken and Champagne" evening at the Cannington Hotel, commencing 8 p.m. Ticket sales must be finalised through Terry Freeman today. Our raffle is also drawn next Sunday at the after game social so get your books in as soon as possible, we need the money.

MIGHTY ROYALS

Congratulations to the Kenwick league and Seconds for putting together four quarters of football with the end result being two convincing wins. But for one or two lapses in concentration the Royals were always in control of both games.

League:

Kenwick jumped straight into gear from the first bounce and at no stage was Armadale in a position to recover completely. The game was played at a fiercely competitive level, and it was due to this that some of the smaller players received unnecessary treatment. For all four quarters the Royals pattern of play was a flow on type of football and this suited our forward line, where Greg Narrier and Kim Lots presented many opportunities and used them to the fullest. Gutsy efforts from the smaller brigade in "Nipper" Truscott (until he came off injured) Wayne Robbins and Neil Fry inspired the side all around the ground. The run on and elusive play of Brian Thompson and Jim Gilbert also gave the side the necessary avenues of attack. All in all it was a rewarding win, but we cannot rest on our laurels and Sunday is another game.

Seconds:

The Seconds set the pattern of play for the day when they annihilated Armadale by 182 points. The Royals showed why there were last years premiers with a fine display of run on football. Players like Norm Miller (Best game this season) Gary Worthington (Marriage hasn't slowed him down) and Ken Staines (Fearless effort) provided the Royals with a fast moving mobile division. Other players who contributed all day were Barry Nicholas, Mike Strang (Killing them at half-forward) and Neil Bennevenue (Strong half-Back).

A very important note is the welcome return of Mr. Len Hurley to the supporters ranks. After a severe illness its good to see Len on the recovery trail. To you Len and your wife we extend our very best wishes.

The Kenwick Football Club would like to welcome all Caning players and supporters to our ground this week and hope you will enjoy our hospitality after the game. Last Sunday's crowd was exceptional and we thank Armadale for their excellent attendance.

I'm sure we will reciprocate.

THE SEASIDERS

Mandurah's hopes of qualifying for the final four were jolted last Sunday when Gosnells annihilated a disappointing Mandurah team, 16-26 to 5-12.

It was hard to believe it was the same team that played so well against Maddington the week before.

It was a crucial game for Mandurah because they needed a win to regain their place in the 4.

The most notable features of Mandurah's play were the lack of enthusiasm and lack of determination.

They attempted to win the ball from behind, which proved costly against the strong Gosnells side. Although it was difficult to find good players over four quarters, Coach Norbert Fandry tried valiantly to enspire the side.

Only a few players responded to his call. Trevor Hathaway played four quarters of tireless football with little support around the ground. Ruck rover Terry Sullivan and rover Rusty Renfrey showed up the younger boys, with a dedicated four quarter performance.

It was a disappointing day all round with the Second's also being soundly beaten 23-21 to 4-5. They showed very little fight or desire to win the ball.

There poor performances over the past 2 weeks must improve. Glen Ridgeway at full back proved to be a promising footballer. Other good players were Bill Doy, Norm Harrison and Ron Powell. Today we meet Thornlie at home and an all round improvement is expected by everyone.

IN THE LIONS LAIR

We certainly didn't beat the Bulls last week — but it was pleasing to see ALL but one player having a REAL go (if the cap fits, wear it.). Perhaps it could be the turning point because the lesson learnt and a return to the side of injured players could serve as well for the rest of the season. Best Players — Steve Whyte (again — had 27 touches for the game), A Osborne (performing quite well — 22 touches for the game) Dave Payne (proved he should have been in from the start — 19 touches for the game), Gavin Denton (never beaten — proud of his guernsey — 19 touches), Denis Evans (18 touches — but still underdone, fitness wise). Right, lets look to this week Seaside's at the seaside a win a must. To those senior players who have not done their job this year — heres your chance. Today's game will be a bone cruncher and a tight one so top performance from 20 players is a necessity to get the goods. A point of interest in a total of 20 minutes of footy in the last 2 weeks, there have been only 12 shepherds — not good enough. See Fred and have a look at last week's statistics before you take the field today.

The reserves went down for the 2nd week in a row, don't make it 3 today. To be in the finals and be successful you must beat top sides — please THINK about it. Let's knuckle down to it this week and get back in the bracket of success. Best Players — Bob Myles (great return to form — its easier when you go in and work for the ball) Norm Taylor (classy display again), Steve Vickers (worked well), Bruce Deters (determined not to be relegated from the side again), Bob Mildwaters (very stable in the back line).

Are you playing in the Old Players game on June 6th? If so see Reg Phillips and get jumper.

DEMONS DIGEST

'NOT FOR NIX - IN '76!'

Today we are hosts to last year's double Premiers, Maddington F.C. the Bulls. All Bulls are invited to our after-match Drink 'n' Chat session. Would it be "Bull" (Dust) to say that Maddington is "Sneaky" Pete Gajda's favourite Club?

Last week was nearly all bad news, fortunately, thanks to our Under 18's, there is some good news.

The Under 18's, at home last week, beat Gosnells by a couple of Goals, to keep their unbeaten records. Best players were Alan Henderson, Rod Nairn, Russell Stevens (again) Mick Healy, Ivan Vudrag (one of Jog's mob) and Newcomer from Byford, Vince Vlasich (Joe's). Burn you Demons, Burn!

Against Kenwick last week, both the League and Reserve teams were well and truly thrashed. Though not to be condoned, Charlie Madaffari's right-cross demonstrated the all too important missing element, when you're being given a 'rough' time, then bloody well 'fight' back! Players to demonstrate this in the reserves, to a large degree were "Fish Heron" "Shorty" Knezevich, Frank Wood and Brian McGrath.

The League side which man-for-man can match any player in the opposition, when it comes to ability alone, but few have that 'fight' in them when it counts in this game, as in all our games this season, our No. 1. "Fighter" was "Sneaky" Pete Gajda. A few others showed the desire to 'keep pushing', among them were Matt O'Mara, Gary Greer, Charlie Tenardi, John "Tanglefoot" Connell and for only quarter he played, "Shorty" Knezevich.

It's time for all players to be honest with themselves, is Sunday when a player goes for a 'Game of Footy' to pass the time (who needs training anyhow?) or is Sunday when a player gives 100% of himself for his team, his club, his supporters, to pay a small dividend on the tremendous amount of time, work, and not the least money, invested in forty players each week. This 'Investment' is totally for the players, and not a single other soul.

Now, what about today's games? Are you going to surrender before you put your guernsey on, or are you going to play as teams, with all the ability and guts you can muster? You're the "Bullfighters", and it's you're arena fellas. You can either be the matadors or the doormats.

I almost forgot to mention (can you wonder at it) that the reserves game against Kenwick saw "Bluey" Brown's 50th Reserve Game. Congratulations, "Bluey", my apologies.

THE KNIGHTS NOTES

Last Sunday Kwinana boosted club morale with a good double over Kalamunda. However, there is still room for a lot of improvement and only the players can achieve this.

The seconds game was a scramble affair until half time but a much improved second half gave us a comfortable victory. Best players were Gary Ross, Ted Riseberry, Drew Proctor and Greg Carkeeg. The league game supplied a better brand of football but more accurate kicking for goal would have given us a bigger win. Best players were Don Baskerville, Ron De Boer, Frank Regena and Dave McGaile. Congratulations to those players figuring in the six-weekly awards.

I would like to remind all supporters and players that membership fees are now due.

SOCIAL NOTES:

The Annual Ball is to be held on Friday June 4th. Tickets at $17 a double are available from the Social Committee. See Ron Caporn for your table bookings.

Congratulations to Sue McGlade on her 21st It's good to see Brett Butler back on both feet. I encourage all members and supporters to enjoy Kelmscott hospitality after today's matches.

MESSAGE TO PLAYERS:

A 100% effort for 100 minutes of football from both teams will give us our first away double for the season.

THE BULLDOGS

Well earned victories for League and Reserves will see both teams consolidate their positions in the top four. With the evenness of the competition each four points must be earned and the game against Canning was no exception.

Welcome to Bill Sutherland for his first game for the League side, and the long awaited appearance of Brian Andrich who had a run with the Reserves.

A return to form for Paul Nansen with five handy goals and a sustained effort on the ball by Eddie Donnes, saw the League side have a comfortable win. Peter Della, A McIntosh and Eric Buckingham made up remaining best players list.

Brian Andrich on the ball, Ian Alexander in the forward line, backed up by sixteen other members of the team saw the Reserves have a crushing win. Alex Stema, Gary Turner and Kim Bingham turned in worthwhile games that require mention.

SOCIAL:

Sunday June 6th —Pleasant Sunday morning with plenty to offer, satisfaction guaranteed, gentlemen.

Car raffle — $20.00 per ticket includes a Cabaret Night at the Kelmscott Hotel, plus the chance to win a Holden Kingswood.
